Enough

A third failed assassination attempt on the President has taken place. The first occurred during his campaign. It resulted in a wound to the President's ear, but the shot would have killed him had he not turned his head at the last moment. Many Americans saw the near-miss as providential, the hand of God protecting the man who ultimately got elected President. Immediately, however, many argued it was fake. One X user, identified only as @PartPhil, self-identified as a trauma surgeon and questioned the nature of the injury, claiming that "neat bleeding" and absence of significant tissue damage were more consistent with "stage makeup" than a high-velocity rifle round, like the 5.56 for which the would-be assassin's gun was chambered. The X Help Center noted that there is "no public record of a surgeon named 'Phil' or 'PartPhil' coming forward to claim the account. Professional organizations and fact-checkers have not confirmed the medical credentials of the individual behind the handle."

Further, the Help Center noted that "established medical professionals and institutions have generally treated it as an unverified social media claim rather than an official expert report." There are no links provided to hospital biographies, National Provider Numbers, or peer-reviewed publications using the @PartPhil handle.

It's well past time to stop this insane, anarchistic, Satanic nonsense. The most-recent attempt revealed, from what we know at this time, a deluded young man who retweeted all the media and political opposition commentary he inhaled in his Leftwing social media echo chamber. Millions of Americans did not like the policies of Presidents Obama and Biden, but they did not attempt assassination. For a while, there was an email circulating about President Obama, citing Psalm 109:8: "Let his days be few; and let another take his office." That was shunned and denounced by almost all conservatives. Scott Pinsker on PJ Media, seeking for causes of the latest incident, wrote, "Maybe it was left-wing America's newfound 'solidarity' with Hamas! Maybe it was mainstreaming hate-merchants like Hasan Piker! Maybe it was liberals' hysterical criticism of ICE! Maybe it's their embrace of Epstein-style conspiracy theories! Maybe it's the TikTok algorithm! Maybe it was constantly comparing Trump to a Nazi!" (<https://pjmedia.com/scott-pinsker/2026/04/26/political-fallout-of-yet-another-assassination-attempt-danger-for-the-dems-n4952214>). Leftwing social media has exploded with conspiracy theories about this attempt being fake as well. Of course, there is the problematic evidence of the would-be assassin's "manifesto."

The first assassination in US history, the assassination of President Lincoln by Confederate sympathizer John Wilkes Booth, resulted in the unintended consequence of the rise of the Radical Republicans and harsh Reconstruction strictures. That was certainly not what Booth wanted. Lincoln approached Reconstruction with leniency and a desire to reintegrate the South into the Union as quickly as possible.

Lincoln firmly believed secession unconstitutional, rendering the states' secession ordinances null and void on their face. Wikipedia noted, "The [Wade-Davis] bill ... underscored how differently Lincoln and Radical Republicans viewed Confederates: Lincoln believed they could be coaxed back into peaceful coexistence, while Radical Republicans believed the Confederates were traitors and therefore could not be trusted" (https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Wade%E2%80%93Davis_Bill). Lincoln "wished to offer an olive branch to the rebel states by pursuing a lenient plan for their reintegration." That "incensed Radical Republicans," who countered with the Wade-Davis Bill (https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Impeachment_of_Andres_Johnson).

I expect unintended consequences directly opposite the intentions of those who oppose the President. In his "manifesto," the would-be assassin decried the lack of security at every stage of his travels. What may result is greatly increased surveillance and increasingly harsh search procedures at every turn. Is that what he wants? I sincerely doubt it. Our representative republic, a free society, has always walked a careful line in balancing security with freedom. Monitoring citizens' social media accounts and subjecting those who oppose current political leadership to onerous search and seizures, contrary to the Fourth Amendment, is a predictable outcome that would cause wailing and gnashing of teeth from those who oppose the President. Years ago, a friend told me, The Left doesn't realize it, but they are asking for Mussolini and they may well get him.

A more pressing issue, for me, is Satanic influence and delusion. Jesus said in John 8, that the devil "was a murderer from the beginning" (vs. 44). He also reminded us, "He is a liar, and the father" of lies. Careless media, social and mainstream, anxious for eyeballs, pass on unverified and unverifiable stories that fuel the frenzy. Gossip and imaginations pass for truth to the uncritical. During the Tribulation, Paul wrote that God would send unbelievers "strong delusion, that they should believe a lie" (2 Thess. 2:11). Revelation 20:3 speaks of Satan being shut up in the bottomless pit "that he should deceive the nations no more" until the "little season" at the conclusion of the Millennium when once more he deceives the nations (vs. 8). Proverbs 6 lists seven things that are an abomination to God: "a proud look, a lying tongue, and hands that shed innocent blood, an heart that deviseth wicked imaginations, feet that be swift in running to mischief, a false witness that speaketh lies, and he that soweth discord among brethren" (vss. 17-19). It seems to me that we are seeing all these things, all Satanic works.

Pray for our nation and our world. We are seeing a historic rise in antisemitism. We are seeing incredible and increasing brutality in crimes. We are seeing seemingly sane individuals accepting and spreading unbelievable delusions, disinformation, and misinformation. I do not believe we are in the Tribulation, but surely the time is short. Our task is to be watchmen on the wall and give warning (Ezek. 3:17).

Gary
